

Evening of show, song and celebration

Providing Pathways out of Poverty

This short video is a retrospective that spans Primavera's early years to the current expansion of new programs and efforts to fight poverty. With archived photos, commentary from founders Nancy Bissell and Gordon Packard, and participant interviews, this short video shares so much of what makes Primavera great.

Voices of Success and Struggle

Each story is unique. People find themselves in hardship for a variety of reasons, yet in so many ways each story holds a thread of truth that extends across all lives—truths about hardship, struggle, hope, success, survival and triumph.

R. Carlos Nakai and William Eaton

R. Carlos Nakai is the world's premier player of the Native American flute, celebrating 25 years of mastery on the instrument. He has recorded over 30 albums with Canyon Records, a Phoenix-based company, and has performed throughout the country and the world.

William Eaton is an accomplished luthier, maker of the stringed instruments on which he performs. Mr. Eaton is owner of Roberto-Venn School of Luthiery in Phoenix, and first collaborated with R. Carlos in 1988, on the album Carry the Gift. He has 10 recordings with Canyon Records.
